

Dual Enrollment Considerations

Dual enrollment is when high school students enroll in college courses and earn credit. Dual enrollment can gradually introduce students to college and help them develop stronger skills to navigate postsecondary education and self-advocate.

If you're interested in dual enrollment, here are some questions you may want to consider and answer below:

- ★ Can dual enrollment be included in my transition plan to help me achieve my goals, like getting a degree or a certificate?

- ★ How might my high school and college work together to provide supports or accommodations for my disability?

- ★ Are there nonacademic benefits to dual enrollment, such as learning about campus resources and organizations?
